

ANIMAL JUSTICE PARTY – SUMMER UPDATE

President's Summer Report

Two and a half years ago a few people passionate about animal well-being began work to establish a political party that would represent the interests of animals in the Australian political system. We believed that either directly or indirectly the action and inaction of governments around Australia were responsible for much of the animal cruelty that we hear about or witness every single day. New Members Section

To help our members keep their contact information up-to-date and provide them with additional information about the work of the AJP, we have developed a members section within our website. You'll shortly receive an email with details on how to set your password and you can also link to it here: <http://www.animaljusticeparty.org/members-area/>

Join the AJP

We would like to thank all our members who have helped to make our party registration possible. It is now time to continue to build and grow the party membership base. If you know someone who would like to join the Animal Justice Party direct them to our membership form <http://www.animaljusticeparty.org/join-us/>. Membership forms should be posted to PO Box 3126, Blakehurst, NSW, 2221.

Fund raising and online donations

Thank you to everyone who donated to the AJP during the year. Don't forget you can now donate to the AJP through our website, simply visit <http://www.animaljusticeparty.org/donate/> or click here and follow the prompts. All donations are welcome and greatly appreciated.
